

Subject: Support for Immediate Acceptance of International Validated Non-Animal Tests

ICCVAM:

As a taxpayer and animal rights activist I strongly urge you to immediately accept the internationally validated non-animal tests. One wonders why your European counterpart, the ECVAM, has approved dozens of tests, while your agency has only been able to approve one non-animal testing method.

Again, I request that you end needless animal suffering by doing the right thing and move forward with the quick approval of additional non-animal tests.
